

CREATE CHANGE THROUGH

LEADERSHIP GIVING

Become a leadership donor and join like-minded leaders in creating lasting change while building your personal and professional networks.

DONOR NETWORKS

Leadership Society | $1,200 - $10,000+

Donors who contribute $1,200 or more annually, either individually or combined with a partner, are automatically included in the Leadership Society. Additionally, these donors may also choose to be a part of the following donor networks:

- Diversity Leadership Society

Through giving, advocating, and volunteering, members position diversity and inclusion as the blueprint for a strong, successful community.

- Emerging Leaders

Young leaders in their 20s, 30s, and 40s from diverse professional backgrounds change the lives of area youth by giving, advocating, and volunteering in support of United Way's education initiatives.

- IT United

Members connect the dots between professionals and students pursuing a technology career through volunteering with student technology programs.

- Women United

As the largest Women United program in the country, this network of women leaders invests time and treasure in solutions to some of our community's most pressing issues as they relate to women and girls.

Tocqueville Society | $10,000 - $99,999

Leadership donors who want to make the greatest impact can join the Tocqueville Society. Giving begins at $10,000 and includes a base gift of at least $6,000 directed to United Way's Community Fund. (Donors who give less than $6,000 to the Community Fund are recognized as Leadership donors at the Builder level.)

Jane Bradley Pettit Society | $100,000+

Members are Tocqueville Society leaders who contribute $100,000 or more annually to United Way.
